

Summer is here, but don't despair if you still haven't figured out what to do or where to go. In this edition of our newsletter, we serve you 5 alternative city getaway's in Europe (that are both beautiful and affordable!) and you can also read about the latest luxury hotel openings in Europe. But of course, traveling isn't just all glamour; there's the climate/sustainability debate to take into consideration as well. When we travel, we experience global problems with our own eyes, for example pollution of the oceans. Click HERE to read our latest article on how you can help make a difference in saving our precious oceans from pollution. Last, but not least, we're sharing a glimpse of our recent behind-the-scenes photos.

Welcome onboard!

Spa of the month

L. Raphael, Genève (Switzerland)

This month, we had the pleasure of visiting the renowned beauty & wellness temple, L. Raphael in Geneva, Switzerland. The spa is a pioneer within advanced beauty therapy, and they offer a wide range of treatments in the areas of anti-aging, oxygen and slimming. They also have their own product line.

L. Raphael is located in Geneva, New York, Verbier, Cannes, Beverly Hills and Kazakhstan.
