

Gift Ideas for the Hostess With the Mostest

This time of year you're suddenly inundated with a calendar full of social activities. While this provides Instagram opportunities a plenty, let us not forget those that make said events happen: The hosts.

Parties don't just throw themselves, you know. Quite the contrary: There's a lot of time, energy and love that goes into it all. If you're not a party planner yourself, we won't bore you with the details. Just know that said party-planning friend should be thanked for all their hard work.

And what better way to say I see you than with these gifts that range from pampering beauty products to elegant sparkling water they can conveniently serve at the party.

L. RAPHAEL

Once the party has come and gone, your host is going to need a little reset. That's where this spa-status set comes into play. First they slather on this detoxifying Dead Sea mud mask and then they moisturize with this ultra-rich cranberry oil. It's just like going to the spa, but the fact that they don't have to leave the house makes it that much better.
