The 11 Most Over-the-Top Hotel Spa Treatments

Start planning a treat-yourself trip right now.

If you thought you were spoiling yourself with your monthly massage sessions, think again. Hotels around the world are taking pampering to an extreme new level of luxury with ridiculously indulgent spa treatments so over the top, they're practically (and in some cases literally) gilded. We rounded up the most lavish, luxury-drenched spa treatments from five-star hotels around the globe - because it's never too early to start vacation planning.

5 The Royal Treatment

The largest spa in Los Angeles, Spa Montage Beverly Hills spans two levels with soaring ceilings, accented by towering columns and mosaics. For facials, the five-star hotel partnered with L. Raphael, a high-end Swiss cosmetic brand known for its state-of-the-art scientifically based treatments. One of their most famous, the L. Raphael Royal C Treatment, uses an advanced, $500,000 oxygen machine (there are only five of them in the world) to blast oxygenated vitamin C and L. Raphael's LEC-40 Complex into the skin to fight hyperpigmentation, smooth wrinkles and even skin tone.
